

Referral Services

SCHSS Mental Health & Addiction Counsellors can refer clients to other medical professionals and services whenever necessary. These services include specific support in areas such as sexual abuse counselling, psychiatric or psychological assessments, detox and residential treatment. We also refer clients to our own wellness programs.