

Blood Sugar Monitoring

Blood sugar monitoring is done on diabetic clients during a home care visit or an office visit. Our diabetic support community health representative does regular visits to Diabetics in each Community and offers nutritional counseling, education and blood sugar monitoring. Blood sugar testing is also done on community members that have not being diagnosed with Diabetes but are at a high risk for developing it. Lifestyle and hereditary factors play a major role in developing Diabetes.

